

Topic: Building Family Wealth in Low-Income Latino Communities – How can my organization have the greatest wealth building impact?

Moderator: Anna Marie Argilagos, Senior Program Officer, Annie E. Casey Foundation

Ana Marie Argilagos provides strategic direction for the Annie E. Casey Foundation's family strengthening initiatives in the U.S.-Mexico Border region and in American Indian communities. Before coming to the Foundation, Ms. Argilagos worked at the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development where she played a central role in shaping the President's Interagency Task Force for the Economic Development of the Southwest Border as well as HUD's Central American and Caribbean portfolios. Prior to her appointment at HUD, Ms. Argilagos worked at the National Council of La Raza, the National Association of Hispanic Journalists, and at AYUDA in Washington, DC.